

About Danny Sanchez

Danny's success for instruction comes from his working knowledge of the auto repair industry. He relates to the everyday issues that shop owners face and provides valuable information that can be applied immediately. Danny brings to each of his seminars real life examples, practical business tools, and helpful steps that lead shop owners to smoother and more profitable facility operations.

The most frequent comment made about Danny's courses is "I wish the course was longer!"

Delivering great information and keeping it